IRISH
Rebel door
Competition
2018

As the story goes, while Dublin was under British rule, they were ordered to paint their doors black upon the death of Queen Victoria. In typical Irish rebellion, they painted their doors bright colors. So, let's rebel against winter – bring out those colorful doors.

We in DUBLINDEE will have our own competition amongst the businesses in downtown Dundee. We invite you to decorate your windows for the festivities. Store front pictures will be posted on our social media. It is a great way to advertise your business!

If you want help decorating, we have enthusiastic artists from the Boosters' Club, the High School Clubs, and the Boys and Girls Club that would love to participate in the festivities by painting your windows. Let us know, we can coordinate support.

Any business interested in participating in the Irish Rebel Door Competition, should complete the attached application and email it to Tricia, at DundeestpatsRebel@gmail.com. Judging will commence after March 5th.

Winner will be announced at the beginning of the St. Patrick's Day Parade at the Grandstand.

Good Luck!
